

PETITIONS OUT FOR WHITEHEAD

Plan to Make Him Republican Nominee For Governor.

ASK HIS CONSENT

Good Men in Charge of the Movement in Each Congressional District.

WANT UNITED ACTION

Yesterday it became apparent that the opponents of Governor La Follette had adopted a systematic plan in order to further the candidacy of John M. Whitehead for the governorship, says the Milwaukee Sentinel this morning. It was reported, and these reports were verified, upon inquiry at several different localities, that petitions in the interest of his candidacy were to be circulated and he would be formally asked to enter the field as the candidate of the republicans of Wisconsin.

Since Senator Whitehead's Madison address on taxation the consensus of Republican opinion, judged by expressions, appears to be that he is best equipped to enter upon a contest with the present incumbent for the nomination. His friends throughout the state believing that his candidacy can best be assured by securing substantial evidences of support have started the movement in the different counties, and will attempt to secure the names of as many republicans as possible to a call requesting him to consent to become a candidate.

The men in charge of this movement and active republicans in each congressional district has taken the matter in hand, and as far as possible will direct the securing of signatures. As near as can be ascertained the list is as follows:

First District—Chas. Ingersoll, Beloit.
Second District—L. Brosse, Portage.
Third District—Grant L. Miner, Richland Center.

Fourth District—Charles Quasler, Milwaukee.
Fifth District—H. M. Townsend, Waukegan.
Sixth District—Willard Van Brunt, Horicon.
Seventh District—J. T. Barber, Eau Claire.
Eighth District—D. E. Frost, Stevens Point.
Ninth District—Judge D. G. Klassen, Oconto.
Tenth District—C. S. Curtis, Wausau.

Eleventh District—S. W. Campbell, Hudson.

The work, according to the plan laid out, will be to secure the co-operation of the Republican leaders in all the counties of the state, and the selection of the men named above is in itself a guarantee that the plans will be vigorously prosecuted. As Representative Republicans, with not only a wide political acquaintance ship, but a personal one as well, the efforts of these men will be directed toward securing the signatures of all republicans who believe that the present situation in the party warrants the adoption of practical plans to secure the candidacy of a man whose nomination, in their opinion will be a guarantee of harmonious party action.

They believe that Senator Whitehead's record before the people of this state is such that he possesses the greatest possible political strength, and as conservative republicans, look upon the crisis in party affairs as one calling for the united action of all republicans who oppose the policies of the present executive. There will be no loss of time in presenting the matter to the attention of the voters. Some of the men who have been in the city during the last few days and by expressions secured from those who have assumed charge of the work in the congressional districts, the opinion prevails that Whitehead's candidacy is acceptable to the great majority of republicans, and that he is a man upon whom all these who do not favor the present executive can unite. It has not been determined when the call as signed will be presented to Senator Whitehead, but it is thought that this will be done some time in February.

Success at La Crosse

The first of the petitions made its public appearance at La Crosse in the hands of ex-Senator Levi Withee who reported late last night that he had secured the names of nearly every leading republican of that city within a few hours, including those of Speaker Ray and John M. Holby. The movement is not made by the republican league, although the league will be found behind the man who is nominated and it expects Whitehead to be that man.

UNITED STATES "IS," NOT "ARE"

Singular Verb Is Used in the Treaties Since 1890—House Committee Decides.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—The house committee on the revision of the laws in the course of some tinkering with the statutes today, ran up against the time-worn proposition whether a singular or plural verb goes with the United States. There was much discussion among the members of the committee.

The worshippers of the constitution, quoting from that instrument, had much the better of the argument, when it was suggested that the committee consult any authority on the subject that could be found. Accordingly the librarians of congress, the supreme court officials, and others were asked to throw light on the matter.

The result showed that, while the constitution and nearly all the laws, documents and messages in the early days of the republic used the plural verb; the tendency had been steadily toward the singular form, while the last fifteen or twenty years the latter had obtained almost exclusively. After reading the arguments and authorities, the committee decided that, legally at least, the United States "is."

FOURTEEN MEN DEATH'S VICTIMS

Disasters Reported in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Indian Territory.

3 MINE ACCIDENTS

Ten Men Lost Their Lives in a Pit at Dow, Indian Territory.

THAW OUT DYNAMITE

South McAlester, Ind. T., Jan. 15.—Ten miners lost their lives in the explosion last night in mine No. 9 of the Milby & Dow Mining company at Dow, Ind. T. The ten men who died were the only persons in the pit, and none was left to tell the story. All the bodies were recovered, and as none was burned, the conclusion is that death was due to after damp. The explosion did not injure the shaft, which was a new one, and the fire that followed was put out before it did much damage. The sound of the explosion was heard above ground, and rescuers were a work promptly. The explosion was at a depth of 240 feet. The machinery was not injured, and miners working at the mouth of the pit descended as soon as it was safe. The condition of the mine indicated that the men might, had presence of mind been exercised, made their escape. The bodies were within a comparatively small radius. The victims had been in the employ of the company for some time and most of them were men with families. The mining company which owns the shaft is one of the heaviest operators in the Choctaw Nation. The principal stockholders are Charles A. Dow of Houston, Tex., and John Milby of Dallas, Tex.

BABCOCK'S BILL TO CUT TARIFF

Places Many Steel Trust Goods on the Free List.

LABOR CARED FOR

Slabs and Structural Material Will Be All Exempt from Any Duty.

NO ACTION IS LIKELY

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—Representative Babcock of Wisconsin yesterday reintroduced his famous tariff bill of last winter. "In several important respects this bill differs from the measure introduced last season," said he. "It represents the views of many intelligent men who are themselves interested in the steel industry and who are experts in all matters touching this subject. I believe it is in shape to pass without opening up the general tariff question on the free list."

"I have placed on the free list the heavy products of the furnace, such as iron and steel slabs, blooms, loops, beams, girders, joists, and all structural iron or steel, boiler and ship plates, steel rails, steel ingots, billets and bars. The steel and iron schedule is very complicated, and the placing of these articles on the free list required the readjustment of nearly all of the paragraphs in schedule C. After numerous conferences with iron and steel manufacturers these paragraphs have been amended upon strictly protective lines; that is, each article is given full protection, as compared with the cost of production in other countries, which still leaves a margin in our favor."

Guard Interests of Labor

"I have been especially careful not to reduce a schedule where labor was the greatest part of the cost of the article, and there is not a single item in the entire bill, whether it provides that he article shall go on the free list or whether it remains on the dutiable list, that will in any way affect labor."

"The whole bill is in line with the republican protective policy, as advocated in the national platforms, and by its greatest champion, the late President McKinley. It affords ample and full protection where it is necessary and places on the free list those articles that are produced here cheaper than they can be in foreign countries."

No action on the bill is expected, either by the ways and means committee or the house of representatives.

The Force Led by Colonel Marisigan Disbands in Batangas—Arms Are Captured.

Manila, Jan. 15.—The rebel Colonel Marisigan, who yielded to General Bell in Batangas province and was allowed five days in which to collect his man and arms, surrendered unconditionally yesterday at Taal with several officers and 245 men, armed with 223 rifles, and one cannon, to Captains Morgan and Ryan of the cavalry. The renegade priest, who was with Colonel Marisigan, and who stole an image of the Virgin, which he used in extorting money and valuables from the superstitious, also came in and restored the image, an act which caused great rejoicing among the religious natives. General Bell has released all of the prisoners except those accused of crimes. Armed stragglers continue to surrender daily, and the western part of Batangas is completely cleared of insurgents.

Colonel Marisigan, whose force was the principal support of General Malvar, considers that the latter has been so weakened by these surrenders that he is now incapable of causing any serious disturbance.

ON INTERURBAN TROLLEY LINES

An Interesting Subject Discussed by the Twilight Club.

GOOD POINTS MADE

Development of the Electric System from First Inception to Present Time.

IN MEMORY OF PORTER

Interurban Trolley lines was the subject handled at the meeting of the Twilight club last evening. Incidentally "electrolosis" was taken up in connection with the road question and was given a thorough going over. The session was one of the most interesting in the history of the club and the topic a live one, created much enthusiasm. The usual excellent banquet was served after which the business of the evening was taken up. The leader for the evening was Edwin C. Bailey and he proved to be a very happy choice.

In Memory of Wm. W. Porter. Mr. F. S. Baines paid a touching tribute to the memory of the late Wm. W. Porter and in conclusion presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

"Whereas, God in His all wise providence has seen fit to remove by death our esteemed friend, Wm. W. Porter, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Twilight club has lost a most worthy brother member, a generous and upright man and one whose life is worthy of emulation;

"Resolved, That we extend to his widow and friends our heartfelt sympathy in this their sad hour of bereavement;

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his wife, also to the press for publication."

Main Subject Taken Up

The main subject was taken up immediately after eight o'clock, F. H. Jackman to whom was assigned the topic: "Development of" being the first speaker.

Mr. Jackman presented a well-written paper showing the development of the trolley system from its first inception down to the present time. Electricity was first used as a motive power by Thomas Davenport at Brandon, Vt., in 1835, the cost of the power being so great at that time that nothing was done with it. In 1875 electricity as a motive power received a new impetus and in 1879 the first electrical railway was operated in Berlin. In 1894 there were 7,470 miles of electric road in the United States, in 1897, 13,766, representing an outlay of $346,000, and employing 166,000 men. Since that time the development of interurban and urban lines had been very rapid and the time was not far distant when the country would be covered with electric lines and he hoped to see Janesville the center of the system in southern Wisconsin.

Advantage of Electric Roads

W. E. Clinton took the subject, "Effect on Cities and Villages Connected." He showed very clearly that the road was an advantage to all connected whether cities or villages. Rapid transportation gives the people in the cities a chance to get away from the noise, heat and dust of the large place and enjoy the cool air of the country and get acquainted with smaller villages.

The people in the villages have a chance to trade in the larger cities and send their children to school in the cities where they can enjoy the benefits of the public library advanced schools and other things.

The village store keeper in order to hold his trade will brush up his stock, keep more goods and better ones and keep his customers from running to larger towns. The advantages of having a line of this kind far out weighed the disadvantages.

Effect on Farmers

W. F. McCaughey was assigned the topic "Effect on Farming Population." He stated that as a matter of fact the advantages accruing to a farmer from an interurban line were very much larger than the disadvantages. His property increased in value in a manner that could be secured no other way. He cited an instance where land along the line of the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville line had increased from $70 to $100 in value since the road had been established.

The state legislature had given the courts power to condemn land for electric road purposes and showed that the roads were considered a benefit by the legislature. They gave the farmer increased facilities for travel, opportunity to send his children to the city schools, and to secure electric power for farm purposes.

The freight and express business would increase as the road grew older and the cost would be about one-third of what is now charged by the railroads.

On Freight Traffic

A. N. Gleason had for his topic: "Freight Traffic." He handled the subject from a railroader's standpoint and decided that interurban lines were no menace to the steam roads. That if the freight business increased in the next twenty-five years like it had in the last twenty-five, the combined steam and trolley

GREAT MENACE TO BADGER FARMERS

Proposed Reduction of Tariff on Cuban Tobacco and Cigars—
Letter from a Dealer.

During the past few months the dealers of this city have had several warnings through eastern parties that an attempt would be made to reduce the tariff on Cuban tobacco and cigars, but a feeling prevailed that the tariff was in safe hands and would not be changed, but during the past two weeks articles have been published even by Milwaukee papers picturing out the great necessity of extending aid to the poor Cubans, that it was a great act of charity and must be done.

This false sentiment has gained a foothold and very little has been said or done in opposition so far as this state is concerned, but the Ohio and Pennsylvania farmers have held meetings and are at work to see that the tariff is not changed. A very foolish argument is advanced that our Wisconsin tobacco would not be injured in price if Cuban tobacco came in free. But dealers have during the past years selected out what is known as "tips" or "B's" using the greatest care in sizing, packing and curing, and this grade has sold for a good filler.

In many factories, it is mixed with the imported article and a demand has been established which has helped the owners of Wisconsin tobacco wonderfully, as the '93, '94 and '95 crops were mostly "B's." The '97 crop was a large percentage "B's," while the crop now in the farmers' sheds being short must be used for fillers to a very great extent. Should this proposed reduction take place it will be safe to say that it will decrease the value of at least 20,000 cases by about two cents per pound, or for the owners a loss of $120,000, in Rock county alone. It is well known that this filler grade is not fit to work until it has passed through the second season's sweat, and by this time with a cheaper Cuban filler the dealer cannot afford to take the risk of packing the short tobacco.

This will affect Wisconsin, Ohio and Pennsylvania, three states with many millions of dollars invested, in a very short time it will rest on the raiser alone as the market must adjust itself to the new conditions. It seems there are more men engaged in Wisconsin alone in producing tobacco than in the island of Cuba. That they raise the best and highest priced filler in the world. That they ask that we reduce our tariff but must not be allowed to ship them any of our tobacco.

The fact is a trust composed of wealthy Yankees are the ones who are playing the Poor Cuban act and will reap the harvest if we sit idly by and make no effort to protect ourselves. The average tobacco grower has enough to contend with now, without dividing up with the Cubans who sold the United States alone in one year $6,000,000 worth of leaf and $2,500,000 worth of cigars. As this was about one-half of these poor suffering people's crop (the balance being sold to Europe) it looks to the average Wisconsin farmer as if there was something wrong, in asking for help at so great a sacrifice as it must make.

I have only mentioned a few points of the result of lowering the duty on the filler leaf, the proposed bill also includes cigars, which would certainly affect our cigar manufacturers as well as the price of the better grades of leaf. In the well-doing of the thousands of factories in the United States all are alike directly interested, for unless the cigar manufacturer is protected against the Cubans he will curtail his business which cuts off the unparalleled demand for cigar leaf we have enjoyed the past few years.

A letter received from Mr. Young, president of the United States dealers' association, states that the outlook for this change is very dangerous in considering that Mr. Young is a man who is thoroughly posted and in close touch with the authorities at Washington it has been decided to hold a mass meeting in the senate chamber at Madison, Friday, Jan.

uary 24, at 1:30, to which the growers, dealers and manufacturers are invited. Do not slumber, but wake yourself and neighbor and let your voice be heard at that meeting. R.

CARRIES ABOUT PRO-BOER OPINIONS

Mr. T. C. Richmond, the well known Madison attorney, is in the city today on legal business. Mr. Richmond was a candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket a few years ago and has always been in the front ranks of those who would remedy the existing social and civil evils. However, of late, some of his admirers who have formerly listened spell bound to his impassioned appeals for various reforms claim that he has been guilty of heresy. Mr. Richmond, though he favors legislation to control trusts, public ownership of railway, telegraph, telephone, street car and steamship companies, also the public ownership of water works systems, coal mines, oil wells, etc., and is by birth a native of the Emerald Isle, he does not favor the struggle that the Boers are making for independence against Great Britain. In a recent issue of the Madison Democrat he published an open letter in which he set forth his reasons for passing up the Boers. A few days later he was vigorously taken to task for his opinions by a pro-Boer enthusiast under the signature of Goo-Goo. The articles were under discussion by the group of which Mr. Richmond was a member when espied by a reporter this morning. To the reporter's comment, "You're not a pro-Boer man, then?" Mr. Richmond, the champion of many causes expressed himself in the following forcible manner: "Yes, sir! I am a pro-Boer, in so far as I am willing to grant them all liberties that I would ask myself. But when it comes to their running all South Africa and England, too, I say, 'No!' In spite of all her traducers I am of the opinion that England and Englishmen with English brains are the more capable for that job."

LITTLE MITE OF A MAN ON THE STREET

A little mite of a man who passed about the city streets yesterday attracted a good deal of attention and comment and for the information of the public a Gazette reporter ran him down and elicited from him the following facts in regard to who and what he was. His name which is euphonious enough to lend dignity to a darkey of the cotton belt of the 'old south' is all told Major Noble George Washington Winner. His height is just 36 inches, he is 32 years of age and weighs 80 pounds and even though so small in stature is a genial, bright, little body, a clever conversationalist, and states that he enjoys the very best of health. An odd thing about him and one which makes him an exception from other midgets is that his parents instead of being small like himself were above the average stature, his mother weighed 190 and his father 200 pounds at the date of his birth. The major is a married man and his wife is also a midget being one inch shorter in stature than himself. Her weight is 65 pounds and she is 23 years of age. They were married in February of '96.

"Inside" that you get Mrs. Austin's Famous Wheat Food, makes a good breakfast, a good dessert, good all the time."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"A Wise Guy," Edmond Hayes' great farce comedy of the past two seasons will be presented at the Myers Grand, Monday, January 20. Important alterations have been made in the play since last seen here. While still retaining all of the cream, as it were, of the version of the last two seasons, Mr. Hayes presents as a basis of the first two acts the scenes, incidents and characters of Robertson's great comedy, "David Garrick." While not attempting to follow the original lines of the comedy he has constructed a travesty on original lines of "David Garrick," that is said to be laughable at the extreme. The management has taken advantage of the opportunity for costuming, scenery and light effects possible in representing the period of 1742 and claim a Wise Guy to be one of the most extensively staged musical farce comedies now being presented.

"The Belle of New York" with a record of 2,000 performances in four years, in such widely separated countries as America, England, Australia and South Africa, is again making a triumphal tour of the principal cities this season. It will be brought to this city on Feb. 11 for a special engagement at the Myers Grand. This is a record that has never been approached by any other American theatrical product, and is second only in all the world to the enormous vogue of "Pinafore" a generation ago.

It is a pleasure to attend the performance of either a drama or an opera and find the actors perfect in their rendition of the parts they play, the waits between acts shortened to a minimum, and the artists upon the stage attractive in appearance. But how many companies can boast of the discipline that results in this desirable end? Hoyt's "A Day and A Night" company is one that is justly famed for these qualities. The company is brightly caparisoned with intellect, beauty and shapeliness. All things embraced in its entirety may be summed up by one adjective—perfection. It will appear at the Myers Grand on Jan. 24.

STILL KEEPS IT UP.
"During a period of poor health some time ago I took a trial tin of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," says Justice of the Peace Adam Shook of New Lisbon, Ind. "I took them and they did me much good. I have used them ever since. They relieve and cure Dr. Williams' Little Early Bitters neither gripe nor diarrhea but stimulate the liver and promote regular and easy action of the bowels."

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM LINE CITY

Death of Mrs. Alfred L. Field, an Old Settler of Beloit—Ice Companies Kept Busy.

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 15.—Mr. S. Graham Field received a message Tuesday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Alfred L. Field, which occurred last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James H. Bates, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Field was in the eighty-eight year of her age, and enjoyed unusual mental activity in her declining years. She was one of the pioneers of Beloit. Her husband was one of the original members of the New England company, settling in Beloit in 1837, and she came to this place from Enfield, Conn., a year later and ever after made this city her home, excepting such time as she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Bates in Brooklyn. Mr. Field died many years ago, and until his death Mr. and Mrs. Field were closely identified with the early history of Southern Rock county.

The remains will be brought to Beloit for burial.

The Regal Tea stores of Beloit and Janesville are no longer involved in the Mullville divorce proceedings, the action to restrain Mr. Hart, the partner brought by Mrs. Mullville having been dissolved. This permits Mr. Hart to conduct the two stores without interference, and the business is not in anyway concerned in the unfortunate domestic affair of the retiring partner. Mr. Hart will endeavor to make the stores more popular than ever by right dealing and enlarging their stock.

J. W. L. Kaufman was chosen football manager for the season of 1902 at the election held in Science hall after the chapel service last evening, and the election was one of the largest ever held. Kaufman was the candidate of the non-fraternity men, while Don C. Planck and C. W. Grey were fraternity candidates. Both factions worked to win, but Kaufman had a small plurality over the other two candidates.

The City Ice Company is very busy with a force of forty men gathering the annual ice crop on Rock river. The ice is sold by experts to be the best ever harvested in Beloit. It is 12 to 15 inches thick and of a very fine clear quality. It was frozen during one cold spell and is perfectly solid.

Fenton Graves will leave this evening for Pasadena, Calif., to join his wife who is seriously ill. A telegram received last night announced that she had sustained a hemorrhage and was very low. A later message gave more hope. Mrs. Graves is a daughter of Ald. John C. Clarke and is well known in Janesville.

Nearly Killed by Coal Gas.
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—Harry B. Wilson, receiving teller at the Columbia National bank, and Edward D. Moore, chief clerk at the Indiana National bank, both rooming at 318 North East street, were found unconscious from coal gas in their room this morning and it was thought for a time that both would die. Physicians were called and after several hours Mr. Wilson was revived. Mr. Moore is in a critical condition.

Hope for Everett Moore.
Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 15.—The work of the bankers' committee has now been so divided that active progress in straightening out the affairs of the Everett-Moore syndicate can be carried on simultaneously in the several cities most interested. It was announced to-day that practically all of the unsecured creditors of the syndicate have consented to the asked-for extension of time.

CATARH

Catarh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system. Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. T. A. Williams, a leading dry-goods merchant of Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I had a severe case of nasal Catarrh, with all the disagreeable effects which belong to that disease, and which made life painful and unendurable. I used medicine prescribed by leading physicians and suggested by numbers of friends, but without getting any better. I then began to take S. S. S. It had the desired effect, and I cured me after taking eight bottles. In my opinion S. S. S. is the only medicine now in use that will effect a permanent cure of Catarrh."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.
If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case.

USELESS OBSTINACY.

Technically, the "tariff" is not a tax, but the duty set down in the tariff, or list of duties, is a tax. The tariff is the schedule of duties as enacted by congress. When The Janesville Gazette speaks of the old time democratic heresy, the tariff is a tax, perhaps this is what it means; but more likely it really means the duty as the word tariff is usually taken to mean. The Gazette has always been an externalist on protection. It is one of those stupidities on this subject who really believes that the foreigner pays the tax, instead of the consumer. It says this question has been threshed over till nothing is left but the chaff. Well, we shall see. We already see what the reciprocity movement must run up against when any modification of the tariff is proposed, just this sort of ignorant obstinacy, moss-back prejudice. Then just listen to this:

"For the first time in many years the democratic party had absolute control of government. In four short years ability was demonstrated to spend the surplus, create a magnificent debt for running expenses, paralyze home industries and flood the land with free trade foreign goods. The tariff was not a tax during this well remembered period in American history. Everything was as free as air and sunshine. There was so much freedom that it became monotonous. People had nothing to do. Coxey's army, with thousands of smaller squads, went marching through the country, until we resembled a nation of tramps. Those were the halcyon days of free trade. No tax, no responsibility, no work, no money, no sugar, but plenty of free soup."

What rot! The Wilson bill, which did not go into operation until after the panic, was very far from a free trade measure and so corrupt in the senate that President Cleveland refused to sign it, or accept it as a democratic measure. There was no free trade on, or anything approaching it. There was no "flood of foreign goods," our markets were overstocked; we had more than we could buy or use. The treasury was empty, the surplus disposed of, before Cleveland was inaugurated. To save appearances, the Harrison administration passed the general fund, in official reports, the worn out subsidiary coin accumulated for years, which was impossible of circulation. It had bonds prepared for issue, but left office with an empty treasury. Yet, in the face of this, these moss-backs will still charge the panic and the treasury stress to the democratic administration.

But even The Gazette will soon hear the thunders of a revolt in its own camp and the cries of an active enemy, demanding a change. Whether the contest will awake The Gazette to facts and conditions, is doubtful. Any way, it is wholly immaterial for such obstinacy counts for nothing in the rush of battle. Active forces climb right over it where it stands as a monument of the ancient past.—Milwaukee Journal.

The Gazette has an ear close to the ground, but fails to hear the mutterings referred to. The trouble with the Journal is, that it fails to recognize the difference between reciprocity and free trade. The paper is the relic of a party that is out and very naturally possesses an ambition to get in. Unfortunately this ambition is blocked by the people, who lack confidence in the ability of the party to either finance or govern.

When Mr. Cleveland was elected in 1892, the manufacturers of the country without regard to politics, commenced to seek cover and before the day of his inauguration, furnace fires were out, factories idle, and general depression anticipated. Results were not disappointing and the experience of the four short years of democratic ascendancy are still fresh in the minds of the masses. If it was not an era of free trade, it had all the symptoms. American skilled labor was glad to find employment at a dollar a day. Goods were cheap, but there was no money for exchange and any price was so much of a burden that want and suffering were everyday experiences.

"Moss-back" is an easy title to apply when argument fails, but there are some principles that are so fundamental, that they bear gracefully the stamp of age and stability. Protection to American capital and labor belong to this class, and the republican party is not ashamed of any moss that may have accumulated.

The idols of ancient democracy are free trade and personal liberty. Of more modern times, free silver and populism. All fair to look upon and fascinating to worship. The Journal clings to the ancient with forlorn hope, and beats the air with frantic effort to force a constituency into line, while Mr. Bryan, with siren strains, chants and praises of the modern, and catches the ear of the masses. The party in the meantime is between the upper and nether mill stone. While the drama is being enacted, the government is in the hands of a party that swears allegiance to the greatest good of the greatest number and moves forward with rapid stride, while the people are contented and happy.

MR. CARNEGIE'S GIFT.

The gift to the nation of $10,000,000 by Andrew Carnegie, is characteristic of the man, and will result in good to the people. The money invested in five per cent. bonds will yield an annual income of half a million dollars, and this money is to be used in supporting a national scientific school at Washington, for the benefit of teachers, as well as worthy young people, possessed of marked ability, but lacking funds to develop. The enterprise will be skillfully managed and good results may be expected.

Mr. Carnegie's benefactions are without parallel in point of magnitude. He is living to a purpose, and blessing humanity in many practical ways.

A COLLEGE EDUCATION.

The last number of the Saturday Evening Post contains an interesting article from the pen of Charles F. Thwing, president of Western Reserve University and Adelbert college, Cleveland, Ohio.

President Thwing is interested in the success of young men, who seek to earn a livelihood and gain advancement in the practical walks of life, and so, for his own information he wrote to the presidents and managers of one hundred different railroads in the United States, asking, "What are the advantages or disadvantages possessed by a college graduate in entering the railroad service, not possessed by the graduate of the high school or the grammar school?" He received many replies and publishes a few of them. Many of the officials claimed that the chances for ultimate success in the highest measure were in favor of the boy, who, at the age of seventeen or eighteen, commenced at the bottom of the ladder, and step by step, at slow stages advanced. That the discipline of the boy, in active service, was natural, while with the college man, coming from environments that are not always helpful, the same necessary training would be irksome, and not infrequently resulted in the work being abandoned to seek more congenial employment.

About twenty letters favored the college graduate, claiming that with the development of science and the rapid strides being made, that a boy need mental equipment and a liberal education to be abreast of the times. Perhaps the best opinion was expressed by Marvin Hughtitt, president of the Chicago & Northwestern road. Mr. Hughtitt says very truthfully that nature and the high school does more for some boys than nature and the college does for others, and that the comparison should not be made between the two classes. Man should not be compared with man, but with himself.

There are some departments of railroading where a college education is necessary to success, but there are many others where the greatest measure of success is attained by men of practical knowledge, gained by perseverance, intelligence, honesty and a dogged determination to win.

The elements that make for success in any calling, are not easily handicapped. Young men fall because they are satisfied to stop on the landings near the bottom. Climbing is difficult and resting easy, and so ambition is soon satisfied. Charles M. Schwab, one of the most successful self made men in America, educated himself by hard study after the day's work was done, and the world of science and discovery enjoys today, the result of his mental toil. There are thousands of men of less prominence, who have won a high measure of success through their own unaided efforts. Some of these men enjoy the pleasure and benefits of a college education, while many more do not. It is not a question of mental equipment, but it is a question of mental and moral endowment. The best educated man is the man with holy ambition, and consecrated service, backed by a determination that knows neither defeat nor failure. The colleges are turning out many bright and well equipped minds while the university of life is adding to the number many more that are winning laurels in the great field of industrial activity. There is room at the top for both classes. Men are wanted everywhere.

Senator Whitehead's views on the temperance question are precisely the same as those of thousands of men throughout the state, who do not use intoxicants. He has never been a party prohibitionist, and is not in sympathy with the impractical theories advanced by the prohibition party. He believes in temperance in all things, and attempts to practice what he believes. He believes in personal liberty so long as it does not conflict with public welfare and he is neither narrow nor bigoted.

A man enjoys the respect and confidence of his fellow men, according to his honesty and consistency. The man who swears respects the man who is not profane, and the man who drinks never urges his friend, who is an abstainer, to join him in a glass.

General Fitzhugh Lee is about to make a lecture tour of the country, under the auspices of the Southern Lyceum Bureau of Louisville. He will speak on Peace and War in the United States and Cuba. The general's long residence on the island qualifies him to speak intelligently, and his time will be in active demand.

The bill providing for a new cabinet officer, to be known as Secretary of Commerce, is likely to have a stormy passage.

The cheapest sort of political capital is an attack on a man's principles.

If Senator Whitehead's opponents expect to accomplish anything but defeat, through this kind of warfare, they will be mistaken.

The pension bill has decreased about $5,000,000, the amount asked for at the present session of congress being about $140,000,000. The ranks of the Grand Army are rapidly being depleted.

Ex-Governor Hoard and his colleagues are said to be willing to knock off the proposed tax of one-fourth of a cent per pound on uncolored "oleo." How generous!

George H. Phillips, the young Chicago corn king, is short on his margins, and a failure has resulted. Mr. Phillips has had a short, but brilliant career, but it requires cash to buy corn.

The Inter Ocean is now owned and controlled by the managing editor, George W. Hinman, Mr. Yerkes having disposed of his interests.

It is reported that Governor La Follette is contemplating a California trip, to get away from political worry, and yet the campaign is not yet opened.

PRESS COMMENT.

Eau Claire Telegram: Reports from Milwaukee since Senator John M. Whitehead delivered his speech on taxation before the Six O'clock club at Madison, indicate that he is regarded with great favor by conservative or stalwart republican leaders, as a possible nominee for the governorship. In view of these reports, and of the fact that the leading La Follette newspaper in Milwaukee is conspicuously criticizing the senator's speech, it appears as though the senator, if not actually entered in the gubernatorial race, is on the road to leadership which might result in his nomination.

Madison Democrat: Racine unionists are a dreamy lot of theorists. They demand that Carnegie's gift of $50,000 for a library be rejected because the donor is an "enemy of labor;" then they want the town to turn in and erect a labor hall and library combined. The citizens of the community would apparently be ripe for the second proposition were they to exhibit the folly to favor the first.

Madison Journal, half-breed, rep.: The stalwarts seem to be wavering between Dennett and Whitehead. If that contingent concludes to contest the governorship. Both are warm Congregationalists and temperance workers which will kindle the Dave Rose Milwaukee coadjutors to the wildest excesses of enthusiasm.

What folly for any of the governor's organs to proclaim that in the nomination does not materialize, a bolt may ensue in consequence. Now stalwarts are saying if the governor is renominated there will be no bolt about them.—Racine Journal.

Milwaukee Sentinel: "Look ahead and hope and trust and fight, ye democrats of 1902!" That's the way the St. Paul Globe gets after them. It sounds like business, especially the trust part of it. Nothing can resist the trust, not even rebellious democracy.

Racine Journal: What pure nonsense to say if the governor is not renominated it will be through trickery and the treachery of those differing. Such remarks as this do the governor more harm than the eleventh story people can possibly do.

Baraboo Republic: Baraboo citizens are said to have invested enough in mines and oil wells last year to erect a new high school building or put in several miles of paved streets. When their dividends come in they expect to go way up to the front and sit down.

Appleton Crescent: If the prediction of Marconi that he will soon send wireless messages across the ocean for a cent a word, is realized, it will mean the complete elimination of the cable companies, which charge twenty-five cents a word.

Fond du Lac Reporter: The Milwaukee Free Press apologizes for printing an article from Outlook, without giving the proper credit. Who is going to apologize for some of the articles which have been printed in that paper?

Evening Wisconsin: Dr. Roberts' proposition is nearly as courageous as the willingness of Artemus Ward to sacrifice all of his wife's relations in the defense of his country.

Appleton Post: In his address on the subject of taxation before the Madison Six O'clock club, one evening last week, Senator Whitehead may be said to have struck twelve.

WITH HIS PARTY.
With this issue a supplement furnished by the Wisconsin Republican League is delivered to readers. Much of this matter has already appeared in The Telegram, but the supplement will prove highly interesting as a compilation of charges against the governor. The fact that Senator Whitehead, who has brought taxation issues to their front at his time, is regarded by many as likely to be the candidate for the nomination for governor against La Follette, makes the prominence given the taxation matter very significant. The Telegram believes Senator Whitehead to be an able, sincere and honorable public man, of reliability and steadiness, in whose hands the interests of the people could not suffer harm. He might be more likely to accomplish something in the solution of taxation problems than the present governor, because the latter is confronted by the absolute and unalterable disapproval of powerful and representative elements of his party, while Whitehead, according to all indications, could co-operate with substantially all his fellow republicans.—Eau Claire Telegram.

co-operate with substantially all his fellow republicans.—Eau Claire Telegram.

FOLLOWS THE FLAG.

From every direction comes news of the rapid progress of America's industrial conquest—the only kind of a conquest we wish to make—of the world. A report received at the Department of State from the United States consul at Aarau, Switzerland, says: "Five years ago it was not possible to buy an American shoe in Switzerland. Now, however, we are gradually getting a firm foothold in that country, and it is no novelty to see in the shop windows of the largest towns shoes with a little American flag and the announcement that they are American made, attached, the inference being that they must necessarily be good."—La Crosse Republican-Leader.

Tommy—Pop, what is a diplomat? Tommy's Pop—A diplomat, my son is a man, who, when he can't have his own way, pretends that the other way is his.—Philadelphia Record.

Sue Brette—How do you know the gallery gods threw eggs at you? Ham Lotte—How do I know? Ye gods, didn't I catch them in the act?—Chicago News.

"I don't see how you can waste your time writing such nonsense as you put into your speeches!" said the over-candid friend. "Humph!" replied the orator. "Don't criticize me. Look at all those people who waste their time listening to it."—Washington Star.

Dickie—Pa, were you a rooder boy'n me when you was as little as me?

Pa—Yes, indeed, Dickie; I was always a very good little boy; but somehow or other I had a great many serious and painful misunderstandings with my parents.—Detroit Free Press.

Turned Down.—"Of course," said Miss Goldrox's lover, "I realize that your daughter is an heiress, but I assure you that I would be just as anxious to marry if she were a pauper." "That settles you," replied her father; "we don't want any such fool as that in the family."—Philadelphia Press.

The Loan Society
The Loan society of the Congregational church held a session at the home of Miss Susie Jeffris on Jackson street last evening. The program for the evening consisted of an address by Mrs. S. P. Wilder of Delavan, wife of the fourth pastor of the local church, who spoke of the work done by the society, remarks by Miss May Cunningham who talked in her usual interesting manner on "The Covenant of the Kings Daughters," and an address by Miss Hattie Benedict, an ex-missionary from Japan who talked of her experience in that capacity.

Abandoned His Family
Frank Sadler is under arrest on complaint of Poor Commissioner Kenyon for abandoning his wife and children. He left them in destitute circumstances. He was taken into custody yesterday afternoon and was taken before Judge Fifield where he waived examination and was held for trial on Jan. 20, bail being fixed at $500 in default of which he was sent to jail.

SECOND-HAND MAN IN SOME TROUBLE

Crossman Sold an Overcoat Which Chief Hogan Told Him Had Been Stolen.

About a week ago Chief Hogan arrested Jacob Baker and Will Crawford on a telephone message from Eagle saying they had robbed a store in that place. The chief heard of two strange young men in town and of their being at the second hand stores disposing of stuff. He caught them that night and the next day they were taken to Waukesha by officers sent after them.

At the time the boys were here they visited Crossman's second hand store and sold him a good overcoat and four knives for $1.35. Chief Hogan found this out and told Crossman the goods were stolen and not to dispose of them.

The chief then notified the people at Eagle that the goods were here and that they ought to pay Crossman back the $1.35. In a day or two a post office order for the amount arrived and the chief went after the stuff. When he offered Crossman the $1.35 and asked for the goods he was told by Crossman that he had sold the overcoat.

Chief Hogan read the riot act to him and told him to get the coat back at once. This morning the authorities at Eagle telephoned Chief Hogan to know why he did not send the goods. The chief explained the circumstances to them and told them what Crossman had done. They said he could either pay for the coat or stand a chance of being arrested for selling stolen property. Crossman is now hustling to get back the overcoat.

TOBACCO SECTIONS OF BADGER STATE

Wall Map Just Issued By C. M. & S. P. Railway—Some Practical Information.

A new wall map showing the principal tobacco growing sections of Wisconsin has just been published by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co. It shows the counties growing tobacco in color from Rock county on the south to Dunn county in the north. An explanatory paragraph at the side of the map, says, among other items of information:

"Wisconsin is known to the tobacco world as the 'binder' state. (A cigar is composed of a 'filler,' the inside filling; a 'binder,' which goes around the filler and binds it; a 'wrapper,' or outside covering.) Few high grade domestic cigars are without the Wisconsin binder. The superior quality of this tobacco has achieved for it a national prominence, and it is shipped all over the United States.

"In 1901 about 33,000 acres of tobacco were planted in Wisconsin. The tobacco runs from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds per acre—average 1,300 pounds—and makes a yield to the farmer of from $75 to as high as $125 per acre."

The map is intended to still further promote the tobacco growing interests of Wisconsin and is being circulated so that it will be seen wherever farmers congregate. It will also be largely circulated in the eastern states to still further proclaim the merits of Wisconsin tobacco.

At the back of the tobacco map is a complete map of the state of Wisconsin, which is intended to give eastern manufacturers of all kinds of goods some idea of the general resources of Wisconsin and adjoining territory. It shows plainly Wisconsin's advantages in regard to having the principal raw materials within easy reach. It shows the timber area, the Gogebic, Menominee, Marquette, Mesaba and Vermillion iron ranges, the copper country, the locations of the great water powers, the lead and zinc areas and the nearness of the coal fields of Illinois.

In a paragraph at the side of the map Mr. Luis Jackson, industrial commissioner of the railway, who prepared the map, mentions the advantages of Wisconsin as a place wherein to locate manufacturing plants. He says:

"A glance at any map of the United States will show the advantageous position of this territory for manufacturing. In itself it presents a market backed by great purchasing power and enterprise; the eastern and southern markets are within easy reach, and while beyond it is a vast territory extending northwest, west and southwest to the Pacific ocean, an area nearly two-thirds of the United States, in the infancy of its development, constituting an ever growing field for the disposal of manufactured goods."

"The trend of manufacturing is westward."

There is also a list of the principal classes of goods manufactured in the state.

The proximity of Jamesville to Chicago and Milwaukee comes into prominent view. The map will undoubtedly help both the tobacco growing interests and general manufacturing interests as it gives practical information.

NEW FIRM LEASE

JEFFRIS STORE

H. Ross King and N. F. Cowles of This City Will Open in March a Model Shoe Store.

This city will soon be favored with the most model and strictly up-to-date shoe store in southern Wisconsin. Papers have been drawn up for the lease of the former A. Richardson Shoe company store on West Milwaukee street for a term of years to H. Ross King and N. F. Cowles, both of this city. The new proprietors are young men who have, for years made this city their home. To the citizens of Jamesville and vicinity they need no introduction. For many years Mr. King has been engaged in the shoe business in this city, having been connected with the A. Richardson Shoe company as well as the C. C. Bennett Shoe company. Prior to this time he was connected with the Foreman Shoe company of Chicago. Mr. Cowles has held the responsible position of bookkeeper with Fiffeld Bros. Lumber Company. He has had years of experience in the shoe business having been engaged in both the retail and wholesale business in the city of Auburn, New York. The store to be occupied by the new firm will be remodeled throughout. A new front will be put in as well as new floors, shelving and furnishings. The new firm will start business with the best wishes of a host of friends and as to their success that part of the business is already assured. The new store will be open to the public in the month of March.

The farce comedy treat of the season will be "A Wise Guy," which will be presented at the Myers Grand next Monday evening by that well known comedian, Edmond Hayes, and a strong supporting company. This attraction has just finished an engagement at the Great Northern theater, Chicago, and the Alhambra theater, Milwaukee, and the press of both cities speaks in the highest terms of both star and company. The performance is given for the benefit of the ushers of the Myers Grand and will doubtless pack the theater to the doors.

CROWD-WATCHED THE WORK

E. T. Fish and Men Place Safes in the Jackman Block

Fully five hundred interested spectators stood in the gold at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets this afternoon and watched the placing of two office safes in the New Jackman block. E. T. Fish, the house mover, had the work in hand and with little or no effort he soon had the two 2-ton safes safely landed on the second and third floors. The work was done with the use of plenty of tackle as well as horses and men. When it comes to the moving of safes or any article of massive proportions Mr. Fish seems to be getting fully his share of the business. In this special line of work he is better prepared to handle such contracts than any other firm in southern Wisconsin.

HE LANDED IN THE ROCK COUNTY JAIL

T. O. Brown of Orfordville Charged With Not Accounting For Money In His Hands.

T. O. Brown, a trusted employee of the Brittingham Hixon Lumber company of Madison, in charge of their branch yard at Orfordville, was landed in the Rock county jail yesterday afternoon by Undersheriff Cochrane, on a warrant sworn out by W. S. Hedges of Edgerton, charging Brown with receiving $395 on April 12, 1901 and not accounting for it.

This is only one of the many charges against Brown and it is claimed that his stealings which have extended over a period of several years will run up into the thousands.

It is claimed that Brown would hold out money paid on bills and pay up some of the older ones letting the new ones run, until more had accumulated than he could take care of. It was discovered some time ago by members of the firm that all was not right and a watch was put on Brown which finally led to his arrest. When he found out that his deal was discovered he turned over to the company a house and lot and other property but his accounts are still short in the neighborhood of $2,000. The exact amount of the shortage cannot be told until the books are balanced up. His hearing in court will be held as soon as one of the members of the firm who is away on a trip can return.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 8, 1900.
I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menses, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.
Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form. This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering. Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb? Beauty flies quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

ONE OF THE BEST LINCOLN PICTURES

An interesting Exhibition in the Show Window of the Hall, Sayles & Field Company.

A number of paintings on exhibition in the display window of the Hall Sayles & Field Jewelry store are attracting considerable attention. The paintings are the work of George B. Gardner, an artist, whose painting of Lincoln, which is one of those displayed in the window gave him considerable prominence in the world of art about a year ago. This painting which is recognized by art critics to be one of the best if not the best portrait of Lincoln that has ever been produced in oil, was painted by the artist from studies made from life at the Astor Hotel in New York City, while Mr. Lincoln was stopping there just after his election to the presidency the first time.

The other pictures of the exhibit are also works of a high order and when examined closely under a proper light conditions show the artist to have been a master of technique. A smaller picture especially, which is a night scene of a party of Indians passing down a river in a bark canoe on their way home from market. The largest picture is a woodland scene and is called the Impending Battle and shows the meeting of two stages each followed by a number of does at the banks of a small stream in the Forest. The Lincoln picture is the property of W. F. Gaskins, instructor in music and drawing at the public school, who was formerly a student of Mr. Gardner.

The other two pictures are still the property of the painter and were loaned to Mr. Gaskins for exhibition. Local art lovers will be well pleased to learn that Prof. Gaskins has secured for the benefit of his class the loaning of forty pictures, consisting of water colors, crayons and charcoal sketches from W. M. R. French, director of the Chicago Art Institute and they are expected to arrive in the city in a few days and will be placed on exhibition at the High school where the public will be also cordially invited to call and view them.

These pictures are the work of the students of the Institute and are the first ever to be loaned. Among the pictures will be one by Edward J. Timmons of this city who is now a student at the art institute where he is reported to be making splendid progress in his chosen work.

Metcalf to Defend Himself.
Topeka, Kas., Jan. 15.—Gen. William S. Metcalf left Lawrence last night for Washington, where he will appear before the Senate Committee on Pensions and endeavor to refute the charges made against him that he killed a Filipino prisoner in cold blood during the battle of Calococan. General Metcalf is sure he will be able to explain matters in a satisfactory manner.

NAMED FOR THE CORONATION.

Whitelaw Reid to Head the United States Delegation.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—The secretary of state has announced the names of the following persons who are to be special representatives of the United States government at the coronation of King Edward: Special Ambassador—Whitelaw Reid of New York. Representative of the United States Army—Gen. James H. Wilson of Delaware. Representative of the United States Navy—Capt. Charles E. Clark, commander of the battleship Oregon during the Spanish-American war and now governor of the naval home at Philadelphia. There are to be three secretaries, as follows: J. P. Morgan, Jr., son of J. Pierpont Morgan of New York; Edmund Lincoln Bayles, a barrister of New York; and William Wetmore, son of Senator Wetmore of Rhode Island.

Dutch Officials Arrived.

The Hague, Jan. 15.—Powerful attacks on the government's management of affairs in the Dutch East Indies continue to be made by Het Volk, the socialist organ of Amsterdam. The charges, which will probably be aired in parliament, include accusations that the Acheen war is being conducted by the Dutch army on lines that parallel those pursued by Lord Kitchener in South Africa. It is also said that gross venality has been discovered in connection with the Jambli war, involving high civil and military officials. The Dutch colonists in the East Indies are said to treat the native population like cattle, contractors furnishing droves of young men and women plantations under conditions that amount to slavery.

Find Mutilated Bodies.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 15.—Residents of Whidby Island are in a high state of excitement over the finding of another headless body on the beach near Port Casey. Last week a body was found with the head and hands cut off and the clothing removed and Sunday another body was found there with the head severed. As no residents of the island are missing, the mystery increases and the authorities are of the opinion that murders have been committed at some joint up the sound, that the heads have been severed to prevent identification, the bodies cast into the water and that the tides have landed them on Whidby Island.

Two Fall 75 Feet to Death.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—By the falling of a scaffold in the Rialto elevator, 104th street and the Calumet river, two men were instantly killed in the morning. A third escaped death by clinging to ropes until he was rescued by other workmen. His hands were severely burned, but otherwise he was uninjured.
